

Bluey 2026 Collectable Coins - FAQs

21 APRIL 2026

What is The Bluey Coin program?

A: The Royal Australian Mint and Australia Post have teamed up once again to release 5 new Bluey $2

Collectable Coins celebrating Australia's favourite Heeler family. The coin program features 5 x $2 coins with each design featuring a scene from the 5 most loved Bluey episodes. Bluey is an inexhaustible blue heeler dog, who lives with her Mum, Dad and her little sister Bingo. She likes to laugh and have fun but more than anything else she loves to play games with her family.

Visit a participating Australia Post Office to collect the coloured $2 Bluey and $2 Bingo till coins by making a cash purchase at the counter for the chance to score the coins in your change. Australia Post is the distributor of the till coins.

The coins can also be purchased either individually or in a 5-coin tube with collectable folder. There is a 1-in-10 chance of finding the special coloured $2 Bluey coin within this set.

Q: Where and when can I get each coin in the program?

A: From May 6, visit a participating Australia Post Office to collect the 5 Bluey coins by purchasing the 5-Coin Folder and Tube Set or Individually from the Coins in Cards with Privy Mark range.

The special-coloured Bluey $2 coin can be found as a 1-in-10 chance within the 5-Coin Tube and Folder Set. These are available through participating Australia Post Office outlets, mail order and online. Bluey Coins with the Bluey Star Privy Mark can only be purchased from the Coin in Card range. The Postal Numismatic Cover (PNC) range, features both till coin designs and its own unique die-cut MyStamp showing Bluey and Bingo in matching designs affixed to each cover.

Q: What should I expect if purchasing via the Online Shop?

A: Bluey is very popular, so release day can be extra busy. Before the products go on sale on the Online Shop, you may be briefly redirected ahead of the 8.30am (AEST) launch.

To help things run smoothly, we recommend logging in to your Online Shop account early and making sure your payment details and shipping address are up to date.

If you're checking out as a guest, having your credit card ready can help speed things up.

It's also a good idea to have your wish list organised, as some Bluey items are limited and availability can change quickly.

Q: When will each coin be released?

A: Australia Post will release all products including PNCs and Proof Sets from 6 May 2026 at participating Australia Post Offices and online. Mail orders are available to customers who have existing mail order accounts with Australia Post Philatelic Bureau. No preorders will be available. Phone orders will not be available for this release.

Q: Are all of the coins available through Australia Post in change?

A: No, 2 unique coloured Bluey and Bingo coins designs can be discovered in customers' change when they pay in cash at participating Australia Post Offices.

The remainder of the coins are available for purchase only.

The coins can be purchased either individually or in a 5-coin collection with Collectable Folder and Tube.

There is a 1-in-10 chance of getting the special coloured $2 Bluey coins within this set. These are available through participating Australia Post Office outlets and online from 8.30am (AEST)

6 May 2026. Mail orders are available to customers who have existing mail order accounts with Australia Post Philatelic Bureau. No preorders will be available.

Phone orders will not be available for this release.

Q: Are empty collection folders available to purchase to store the coins?

A: No, official collection folders are only available with the purchase of the 5-coin collection. The collections will be available for purchase from participating Australia Post Offices and online from 8.30am (AEST), 6 May 2026, while stocks last. Mail orders are available to customers who have existing mail order accounts with Australia Post Philatelic Bureau. No pre-orders will be available. Phone orders will not be available for this release.

Q: How do people 'collect' the coins?

A: From 6 May 2026, customers can go into any participating Australia Post Office around Australia and make a cash purchase for the chance to find the two unique collectable coloured $2 Bluey and $2 Bingo coins in their change, while stocks last.

Alternatively, they can purchase the individually packaged coins, or buy the full collection of 5 coins (plus 1-in-10 chance of a coloured $2 Bluey coin in the set) from 8.30am (AEST), 6 May 2026.

Q: What denomination are the coins?

A: The coins are Australian Legal Tender $2 coins.

Q: Are these coins real Australian currency?

A: Yes, these coins are Australian legal tender. They were minted by the Royal Australian Mint and have gone through the legislated approval process.

Q: What do the coins look like?

A: The coins feature the King Charles III effigy along with the two-dollar denomination on the obverse and with special designs on the coin's reverse featuring a scene from the 5 most loved Bluey episodes.

There are eight designs in total:

- $2 coloured Bluey
- $2 coloured Bingo
- $2 coloured proof – The Heeler family.

The $2 coloured Blue and Bingo and proof coin designs do not have the denomination on the obverse.

The episode coins included in the folder and tube set and coins in cards have the denomination on the obverse.

Q: How many of these coins have been produced?

A: The numbers produced of each coin will be published in the Royal Australian Mint's 2025-26 annual report.

Q: Why is the Royal Australian Mint commercialising Australian Legal Tender?

A: The Royal Australian Mint is tasked with recognising events and themes from our culture and history that are important to Australians. Bluey's significance to Australia (and the world) is unique and has been recognised by the Mint as an opportunity to celebrate Australia's much-loved series.

Q: How long will the till coins be available through Australia Post tills?

A: The duration of a coins' availability will depend on the demand at individual participating Australia Post Offices and is subject to availability.

Q: Will I definitely receive one of the $2 coins in my change?

A: The coloured $2 Bluey and Bingo coin designs will be released through participating Australia Post Offices, subject to demand/availability. We recommend making cash purchases at participating Australia Post Offices during the promotion to give you the best chance to collect the coins in your change. There is no guarantee which, if any, of the 2 coins you will receive in your change.

Q: How will participating Australia Post Offices distribute the coins to customers?

A: Participating Australia Post Offices will distribute the coins in change when customers make a cash purchase. The coins are subject to demand/availability. There is no guarantee which, if any, of the 2 coins you will receive in your change.

Q: Will these till coins be available to purchase in sachets or rolls?

A: Till coins will not be made available in sachets or rolls.

Q: My coin/s is/are damaged?

A: The coins that are being distributed through Australia Post Office cash tills are subject to the usual rigors of daily use which can cause wear and damage to coins.

The coloured $2 Bluey and $2 Bingo coins that are available for purchase are uncirculated coins.

If a coin you purchased is damaged, please return to the place of purchase for options regarding a replacement or refund together with Proof of Purchase and within 60 days in line with our Returns Policy.

Q: Why are my coins in the tube scuffed/damaged?

A: The Bluey coins in the tubes have been produced to a finish where there are tolerances for slight imperfections.

Q: Will all coins be available through participating Australia Post Offices?

A: Yes, all coins will be released through participating Australia Post Offices and online from 8.30am (AEST), 6 May 2026. Mail orders are available to customers who have existing mail order accounts with Australia Post Philatelic Bureau. No pre-orders will be available. Phone orders will not be available for this release. Coins are subject to demand/availability.

Q: Is there a website for the program?

A: See auspost.com.au/bluey

Q: I heard that I can buy the coins individually or in a full set?

A: The Bluey coin program creates a fun and exciting event for people to engage with their local Australia Post Office, allowing them to collect the coins in their change to celebrate the cultural phenomenon that is Bluey.

The coins can be purchased either individually for $20 each or in a 5-coin collection with Collectable Folder and Tube for $34.00- There is a 1-in-10 chance of getting the special-coloured Bluey $2 coin within this set. These are available through participating Australia Post Office outlets mail order and online.

Bluey coins with the Bluey Star Post Privy Mark can only be purchased from the range of Individual Coins in Cards. The Postal Numismatic Cover (PNC) range will include the till coin designs.

Q: Are there any special requirements to qualify to receive a coin in-store at Australia Post?

A: The coloured $2 Bluey and $2 Bingo coins will be distributed by participating Post Offices as change. The only requirement is to make a purchase using cash that requires change to be provided. It will be up to chance whether you receive the coin/s in your change.

Requests for change must be reasonable so that they do not disrupt normal business or unreasonably exhaust coin supplies.

All other coins in the range are available for purchase at participating Australia Post Offices mail order and online.

Q: I want a specific till coin, how can I collect this?

A: Visit a participating Australia Post Office for your chance to collect the coloured $2 Bluey and $2 Bingo coins in your change. It will be up to chance which coins you receive in your change.

Requests for change must be reasonable so that they do not disrupt normal business or unreasonably exhaust coin supplies.

If you're after a specific Bluey coin, these will not be available in your change, these are available for Bluey 2026 Collectable Coins -purchase as individual coins or as a collection in the tube with folder.

Q: Can I go to a participating Post Office with a large note and ask for change in $2 coins?

A: Customers will need to make a purchase using cash to receive coins in their change.

Requests for change must be reasonable so that they do not disrupt normal business or unreasonably exhaust coin supplies.

Q: Can I make a purchase using a bank card or credit card and request cash out for the coins?

A: Customers will need to make a purchase using cash to receive coins in their change. Requests for change must be reasonable so that they do not disrupt normal business or unreasonably exhaust coin supplies.

Q: What are the special coloured Bluey coin?

A: A special coloured Bluey coin has been produced for this program. The coloured coin is randomly packed into some of the Bluey Collection tubes (tube sets with folder) for customers to find. These are available as a 1-in-10 chance through the purchase of the 5-coin and folder collection.

Q: How many of the coin sets/individually packaged coins have been produced?

A: Coin production numbers will be published in the Royal Australian Mint's 2025-26 Annual Report and are not limited.

Q: Can I buy a full set?

A: Yes, from 8.30am (AEST), 6 May 2026 full sets are available for sale via online and through participating Australia Post Offices. Mail orders are available to customers who have existing mail order accounts with Australia Post Philatelic Bureau. No pre-orders will be available. Phone orders will not be available for this release.

Q: Can I buy individual Bluey coins?

A: Yes, from 8.30am (AEST), 6 May 2026, individually packaged coins will be available for sale in-store through participating Australia Post Offices and Online. Mail orders are available to customers who have existing mail order accounts with Australia Post Philatelic Bureau. No pre-orders will be available. Phone orders will not be available for this release.

Q: Where can I find the special coloured Bluey coins?

A: The majority of the coloured $2 Bluey coins have been randomly packed into the Collection Tube and Folder set replacing the uncoloured $2 Bluey coin. It will not be known which tubes contain the special edition coin until after they have been purchased and opened.

Q: How many of the 5-Coin Collection tubes and Folders contain the special edition coloured Bluey coin?

A: Approximately 1-in-10 coin tubes contain the special edition coloured coin. This coin has been randomly packed into the tubes but it will not be known which tubes contain a coloured $2 Bluey coin until after they have been purchased and opened.

Q: Australia Post staff or licensees are selling the coins early online.

A: Any incidences of coins being sold early are disappointing to see and will be under investigation.

Q: Coins have been released early at some participating Australia Post outlets

A: Any incidences of coins being released early are disappointing to see and are under investigation.

Q: Individual collectable coins are being resold by Australia Post staff or licensed Post Offices.

A: Any incidences of coins being resold by a licensed Post Office are disappointing to see and will be investigated.

Q: Why are people selling the Bluey coins on eBay for higher values?

A: It's quite common during collector events for collectors to privately swap and sell the collectable items via online auction.

Q: I would like to lodge a complaint or provide feedback about the program. How do I do this?

A: Phone Australia Post on 1800 331 794 and then select option 1. Your feedback will be passed onto the appropriate area.

