Connect with other collectors on Whatnot

Explore live auctions and collectables across Australia. All purchases are delivered safely by Australia Post.

Whatnot is transforming how you can connect with fellow collectors. The live-streaming platform, launched in Australia in 2024, brings collectors together in real time, creating a vibrant community around shared passions.

Unlike traditional online marketplaces, Whatnot operates through live video streams where collectors can browse, bid and purchase while interacting directly with sellers. Join live shows focused on your favourite categories, participate in real-time auctions, snap up fixed-price items or chat with other like-minded collectors.

As Whatnot's official delivery partner, Australia Post ensures your collectables reach you safely and securely, every time. For collectors looking to explore new horizons, Whatnot offers an experience that celebrates the thrill and joy of completing your older collections.

Whatnot celebrates discovery and connects you with others who share your interest in collecting.

Bush Medicine

Traditional healing wisdom more than 65,000 years old.

First Nations peoples have practised customary forms of medicine and healing for millennia, drawing on complex cultural knowledge and natural resources flourishing on Country. Gifted healers continue to bring remedies and relief to their people through bush medicine. From snake vine to eucalyptus leaves, each remedy demonstrates deep understanding of Country. Whether crushed, boiled, burnt or smoked, these botanical remedies represent an enduring cultural legacy.

Dahlias: Australian Cultivars

Celebrating home-grown plant breeders.

Native to Mexico and Central America, dahlias were introduced to Australia from Britain in the early 19th century. Their genetic makeup makes it easy to create new cultivars, which has made them beloved by Australian gardeners. Local plant breeders have created many popular cultivars, including the late Neville Naumann's decorative Bracken Palomino, Bill Johnson's anemone-type Nayap and Anita Goode's Wangolina Semillon, bred in 2022 in South Australia.

HOW TO SET UP YOUR STANDING ORDER

There are many benefits of setting up a standing order, primarily to ensure you never miss out on adding new, and often rare, qualifying products* to your collection. You can decide exactly what you want to receive, with no minimum issue restrictions on your purchase. No queues, no fuss – just products delivered to your door as soon as they are available.

Important notice

On occasion, currency has been sent to the Australian Philatelic Bureau in the mail to cover the cost of an order. While this practice is rare, we would like to remind all our customers that this method of payment cannot be accepted.

Australia Post advises that this is in keeping with guidelines for mail processing as set by the Australian Postal Corporation Act 1989.

Planned withdrawal dates may be changed without notice to meet emergent postal requirements. Advice of such changes will be published retrospectively in the first available Stamp Bulletin Australia. Contact the Australian Philatelic Bureau (FREECALL 1800 331 794 within Australia, +61 3 8340 7240 overseas) or visit auspost.com.au/stamps for the current price at the time you place your order. Hours of operation are 8.30am to 5pm AEST. The price of stamps and related products, souvenir items and numismatics are correct at the time of printing but are subject to change. The price of numismatic products is subject to valuation changes. Contact the Australian Philatelic Bureau or your participating Post Office to check the current price at the time of placing your order.
